Youth and Family Programs

More Information: LaAmistad is an after-school program providing Latino students and families from Buckhead area elementary and middle schools with tutoring and mentoring. Our purpose is to increase participation in the community by achieving success in school, as families, and as community members. The program has operated since 2001 and is a 2-time winner (2004 & 2009) of the Atlanta Public Schools prestigious A+ Achievement Award.

LaAmistad is a program of the Bill Maness Outreach Center, a 501 (c)(3) charitable organization.
