RICKY'S RUN

5K Run/Walk ($25)
1K Run/Walk ($20)

Saturday May 9, 2015 @ 7:30 am
Bells Ferry Learning Center * Hwy 92 @ Bells Ferry Road

Why Ricky's Run? Those of us who knew and loved four-year-old Ricky James called him 'Superman'. He was a delightfully precious boy with a big heart who touched the lives of many. On May 23, 2010 (eight days before his fifth birthday), he earned his angel wings after battling a rare and aggressive form of childhood cancer for most of his young life. We choose to run in Ricky's honor, to remember our 'Superman', and to help other children who need us.

Dress Code: Running Attire. Red Cape & Blue Tights Optional.

Awards will be presented to top 5K finishers in 10 age groups.

All 1K participants will receive a ribbon.

Camp Sunshine enriches the lives of Georgia's children with cancer and their families through year-round recreational, educational and support programs. To learn more, please visit www.mycampsunshine.com.

Camp Southern Ground is the passion project of GRAMMY-award winning artist Zac Brown. This state-of-the-art facility will offer a summer camp and year-round retreat destination for children with diverse abilities and backgrounds to learn life skills and teamwork in a positive, healthy and organic environment.

The Bells Ferry Playground Initiative is a project of Bells Ferry Learning Center. The goal is to create an all-natural playground for children in the Woodstock & Acworth communities to foster outdoor play in a unique environment.
